English

This half term in English we will be moving onto Curious Quest for our writing lessons. We will be using a range of stimulus including the following texts: The poem Cheese and Jam by Greg Bottrill and the picture book Oi Frog! by Kes Gray.

We will be focusing on these key aspects of the National Curriculum but when using Curious Quest, we are also using high quality vocabulary.

You can help your child at home by supporting them to write short sentences, lists and labelling pictures.

Science

The children will be finding out about animals including humans, this is a vast subject and will be continued during the spring term. This term we will begin by exploring living things and how we know if something is living.

We will be learning the names for parts of a human body and then the senses we have. Using some different experiences for the children to consider our sense of taste, smell, sight, hearing and touch with a range of hands-on activities to fully engage learning.

We will also be using data to create a table of information and then complete a range of activities to show understanding of how to read and use data.

Phonics and Reading

This half term we continue our phonics journey with Little Wandle. The children will be moving onto the Phase 5 sounds and tricky words. Our reading lessons continue with three weekly sessions with the focus of decoding, prosody and comprehension. You can help your child at home by hearing your child read their 'show off' book and going over the phonics sheet, which is sent home on a Thursday.

Computing

Digital Painting:

Learners will develop their understanding of technology and how it can help them to be creative. The outcomes include making marks on a screen and explaining which tools were used, drawing lines on a screen and using paint tools to draw a picture.
